Umbrella was a classic dome

Epitome of the divine room

Emblem of the priest's street

Held over the head of a sheer prophet

Made of gold for a king's chariot

Further crafted into black velvet

Celebrated in the wedding of a groom

Centred the holy journey of every home

Item of forgetting to hold

Wanted for the owner's threshold

'Once upon a time' in king's fable

Modern times the street selling label

Past mended for reusable

Present offended for a disposable

Sprinted like a Cinderella

Reached a new villa

Unheard to fix the lace

Missing the prince and the palace
